

Prominent New Mexico Family Lawyers Announce New Firm

Walther Bennett Mayo Honeycutt PC to Focus on High-Stakes, Complex Family Law

01 May 2017 from Walther Bennett Mayo Honeycutt P.C.

Santa Fe, May 1, 2017/Press Release – New Mexico Family Law titans David Walther and Sarah Bennett join with next generation lawyers Amber Macias-Mayo and Morgan Honeycutt to announce the formation of a new family law firm focusing on financially and geographically complex Family Law.

Walther and Macias-Mayo currently head David Walther Law, where they have worked together since 2014. Cases the firm handles have increasingly required the development of methodologies and competencies uniquely suited to high profile, multi-state divorce and custody cases. The firm has dedicated itself to providing the most sophisticated approach available. But, large cases also require a deep bench of competent attorneys. After teaming with other law firms to accommodate these needs, Walther and Macias-Mayo sought to bring sufficient talent in-house, first by adding Michael Golden as an of-counsel asset, and now, by joining forces with Sarah Bennett and Morgan Honeycutt. According to Walther, “We are focused on building the leading law firm in New Mexico handling complex Family Law.”

Bennett and Honeycutt join WBMH from Rothstein Donatelli, where they headed up the firm’s Family Law practice. High net worth and complex custody cases, resolved collaboratively, in litigation, or in mediation, formed the backbone of their practice and made the team a natural fit with that of Walther and Macias-Mayo. Of her move from Rothstein Donatelli, Bennett states, “This is a once-in-a-career opportunity to work with the best family lawyers I know. Our combined knowledge and skills will provide clients with a level and breadth of service unparalleled in New Mexico.”

The new firm brings together some of the most experienced and well-respected family lawyers in the state and will be one of the largest firms dedicated uniquely to Family Law.

Walther Bennett Mayo Honeycutt PC will serve New Mexico and out-of-state clients from new offices located at 123 E. Marcy Street, Suite 205, in Santa Fe, New Mexico. For more information, please visit www.wbmhlaw.com or contact Clara Martinez at
