

WBMH Law's Sarah Bennett:

Best Lawyers® 2019 Santa Fe Family Law Lawyer of the Year

16 August 2018 from Walther Bennett Mayo Honeycutt P.C.

Santa Fe, August 16, 2018/Press Release - For the second time in seven years, Sarah Bennett has been named Best Lawyers® Santa Fe Family Law Lawyer of the Year. Entirely based on peer review, the Best Lawyer process is designed to capture the consensus opinion of local lawyers about the professional abilities of their colleagues. To be named Lawyer of the Year means that Bennett had the highest overall peer-feedback for a Family Lawyer in Santa Fe. Quite an honor.

This recognition comes at the height of Bennett's forty+ year career, the last fifteen of which have been as a board-certified Family Law Specialist. In that capacity she has been instrumental in broadening the practice in New Mexico to include collaborative practice and to refining it as a member of the Supreme Court Domestic Relations Rules Committee.

Bennett's WBMH colleagues David Walther and Michael Golden have been similarly honored as Santa Fe Family Lawyers of the Year in 2014 and 2016, respectively. All three were named Best Lawyers in 2019. Along with her WBMH partners, Bennett currently focuses on complex family law cases in which financial or geographic considerations require the highest level of competence.
